Michael Savage's 'Abuse of Power' Debuts as #4 on NY Times Bestseller List

San Francisco, CA - Talk Radio Network's nationally syndicated talk radio host, and bestselling author, Michael Savage, announces that his latest book "Abuse of Power" debuted as #4 on the New York Times Bestseller List. Savage made the announcement on-air during his radio program. During the segment Savage told listeners that, "Abuse of Power" will debut as #4 on the New York Times Bestseller List - not bad for a guy who is banned from FOX News."

"Abuse of Power" was #4 in less than 10 days on the market, Savage's first novel is already a bestseller. "Abuse of Power" tells the story of a smeared network journalist who uncovers a chilling terrorist plot. Michael Savage is ranked as the third largest syndicated host in the nation, with over 9 million estimated weekly listeners, according to Talkers Magazine, and now airs on over 300 stations nationwide.

Jerry Doyle for President?

Las Vegas, NV - Talk Radio Network Enterprises' nationally syndicated -radio host, Jerry Doyle was included in a recent list of possible third party candidates which could draw 5-15% of the popular vote. The list was featured in The New American's on-line magazine article, "Ron Paul's Real Electability: Stopping The Third Party Threat" written by Thomas Eddlem. Eddlem article states, "Plenty of third party candidate possibilities dot the political horizon, each of whom could draw 5-15% percent of the popular vote (or more) and a significant percentage of conservative and independent voters."

Jerry Doyle was not the only "third party threat" Eddlem included in his list of people who could potentially run as third party candidates if Ron Paul does not win the Republican nomination in the 2012 Presidential Elections. Also on the list included: CNBC's Reporter Rick Santelli, Fox's Judge Andrew Napolitano, Steve Forbes (who's already run for President as a Republican), America On-Line Founder Steve Case, and EuroPacific Capital CEO Peter Schiff, among many others.

Jerry Doyle

The Jerry Doyle Show continues to reign as the fastest growing radio show in TRN Enterprises' history, airing on almost 200 affiliates nationwide, 31 of which are in the top 50 metro markets, and ranking as the 6th largest syndicated show in the nation, with over 3.75 million estimated weekly listeners, according to Talkers Magazine.

The article featured in The New American points to the fact that many are starting to ride the wave of popular sentiment that the current system is not working for the average American and includes what Eddlem refers to as "5 electoral facts" to support his position that Ron Paul should be the GOP Candidate in 2012.

Eddlem writes, "While the vast majority of these possible candidates have no interest in running for President, all it would take to prevent any GOP candidate from winning a majority in the final election is for one to run. There's no shortage of high profile possible third party candidates who could draw Republican votes from an establishment nominee who has a history of defending crony capitalism. But a Ron Paul candidacy would defeat any center-right or populist third party candidacy by co-opting the anti-crony capitalist vote."

Phil Hendrie plays a 'liger farmer' in FOX's new animated comedy TV series, 'Napoleon Dynamite'

Los Angeles, CA - Talk Radio Network - FM's nationally syndicated radio host, Phil Hendrie is featured as a regular voice guest star, playing a "liger farmer", in the new FOX TV animated comedy series, Napoleon Dynamite.

The Phil Hendrie Show now airs on over 120 affiliates across the nation, and now clears in 8 of the top 10 markets, including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, San Francisco, Dallas, Houston, Atlanta, and Boston, where Hendrie's cast of fictional characters continue to provoke people, while also feeding a circle of social satire.

What is a "liger farmer"? - A professional cross breeder of lions and tigers - but not bears. Fox's new TV series, Napoleon Dynamite is based on the successful 2004 film, of the same name, and follows the misadventures of an awkward high school teenager and his quirky friends as they struggle to navigate life in rural Idaho which airs Sundays at 8:30 on Fox. Fox originally ordered six episodes to be made, but quickly increased the order to 13 before it debuted in January.

Phil Hendrie says, "What great fortune to be working with another smart and funny animated show at Fox. And the fact that I had the opportunity to work with many of the artists who created the film was also a first for me, and a great one."

TRN-FM's CEO, Mark Masters, who syndicates The Phil Hendrie Show, says Phil is the master of satire and always delivers a pay off which brings perspective on important issues of the day. He truly is a genius at his art form."

Hendrie, who notably provided several voices for King of the Hill, and Futurama has been in FOX studio's for months recording the new Napoleon Dynamite TV show. Hendrie's character's voice on the series was inspired one of his popular fictional radio characters' voice, Steve Bosell. Hendrie is also cast in another part, on the animated series, as a school counselor, who may sound a lot like Bobby Dooley, to Hendrie's radio fans, another fictional character appearing in the radio program. Jerrod Hess, the co-writer and director of the 2004 film, and now co-writer and co-producer of the animated TV series, welcomed Hendrie to the set. The original cast of the movie, led by Jon Heder, who played the title role in the movie, also returned to voice the animated TV series, along with the film's writer, Jerusha Hess who is also co-writer and co-producing the TV series with husband Jerrod along with veteran producer, Mike Scully, from The Simpsons.

The Phil Hendrie Show airs live Monday through Friday from 10:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. PST (1:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m. EST, Tuesday through Saturday), on TRN-FM. For more information on The Phil Hendrie Show, contact Talk Radio Network - FM at 866-876-5077 or visit them online at www.talkradionetwork.com.
